

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN

Telephone 1002

T. Frank Cunningham gave his life history and a talk on his line of business at the regular meeting of the Willimantic Rotary club held Tuesday noon. The meeting was held at the Willimantic Hotel. Mr. Cunningham is a native of New York city, "Bill" Scoville, a treasurer of Hartford, Charles S. Kissinger, also of Hartford, and Luke H. H. of this city.

In the drawings for next week's auction, the name of Gerard L. L. was drawn and Edward A. Parker will give the presentation speech. "Gus" Greene of the Green Company will give a talk on his business at the meeting in two weeks and Maurice Leonard will tell Gus what he would do if he were in the same line of business.

Frank H. Fene was appointed chairman of a committee in regard to the International Rotary convention to be held in St. Louis. A quartet consisting of Harry W. Standish, John Allen, Henry Condon, and Raymond Parker, rendered "In the Evening on the Moonlight" for the benefit of C. Harry Branch who attended the first meeting. Mr. Branch is connected with the Hall & Hill Printing company. Fred E. Jordan spoke in regard to the boy whose expenses the club is paying at the Hartford hospital. The boy has been confined three weeks and it is necessary that he remain there about six weeks longer to obtain good results. The money was left to the discretion of the boy's committee.

Rev. Harry S. McCready spoke about the third community forum which will be held at the town hall next Sunday evening. Professor Sharpe of Boston university and a naturalist will be the speaker. A large attendance is looked forward to. Jerry Sullivan then mentioned the fact that the drive for the visiting nurses association is now on.

T. Frank Cunningham took the floor and said that he was born on June 11, 1886, in New York city. He is a native of this city and like all young boys always rode on a grocery wagon. The graduated from St. Joseph's parochial school and attended Willimantic High school. He then took a position with the H. L. Hunt clothing company and has been employed by the Church-Road company, of which he is secretary and manager of the local store, when they organized in this city some eight years ago.

In view of his industrious nature, Harry W. Standish presented Frank with a snow shovel and a first aid kit to use when driving his car.

George Shaffer introduced his guest, Edward Gilgus, of New York city. Mr. Gilgus spoke forcibly on the raising of the English language out of the dead language and making it a living thing. He stated that we could never be a nation patriotically prepared unless we have some clear cut means of verbal communication.

T. Frank Cunningham gave his business talk and illustrated his words in regard to style of men's clothes by using a live model.

John C. Tracy said that he conducted a store just opposite to the Church-Road and could not say much in regard to how he would take Frank's place as he believed that Frank was doing fine.

Upon a motion made by Frank H. Fene it was voted that the chair appoint a committee of three to discuss the best plan to raise money to send a delegate to the international convention.

At a special meeting of the board of aldermen which lasted fifteen minutes, authority was given the fire committee to purchase a fire engine. A resolution was adopted giving the mayor power to borrow 10,000 in full amount or fractional part thereof to help defray the current expenses of the city. Bills were voted paid.

The purpose of the meeting was to conclude the city business for the fiscal year.

James E. Casagrove, aged 34, son of John and Mary Riley Casagrove, died at his home, 27 Leveiston avenue Tuesday afternoon after a short illness. He was born in Saugerties, N. Y., August 1, 1875, but has been a resident of this city for a number of years and was employed in the city of Hartford. He had been employed by the American Thread company for years. He was a member of St. Joseph's church, N. Y., Knights of Columbus. Besides his parents he leaves one sister, Mrs. J. A. Walsh of Stamford.

It was made known Tuesday through complaints received from principals of the public and parochial grammar schools that cigarette smoking was becoming a habit among boys of a tender age.

When questioned by the officers some of the boys who were caught smoking gave the names of at least four small grocery stores where they had purchased cigarettes. It is probable that the process will be brought before the court for selling tobacco to boys under sixteen years of age.

An unidentified truck skidded Tuesday morning while coming down Church street and struck a telephone pole near the driveway of the residence of Mrs. L. J. Lincoln, No. 129 Church street. The truck received slight damage and a large splitter was torn from the pole.

The police department and the firemen at the Bank Street engine house were instructed in the use of a plunger Tuesday evening by a representative of a plunger company.

William L. L. was Tuesday morning found lying covered in a half inch blanket of snow. During the day the Emphasis used to be focused solely upon the caloric value of foods. Now, it is known that vitamins are equally essential to adequate nourishment.

CALORIES

Scott's Emulsion

has particular value as an energy-building food and tonic. It is also rich in vitamins, factors so important in building up the body and promoting healthful progress.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 22-19

snow melted and left the streets in a very slippery condition.

Mrs. Napoleon Liberty announces the marriage of her daughter, Laura, to Samuel W. Chadwick of Meriden.

Statistics recently made up of age of representatives and senators at the recent election show that Ashford has the two youngest representatives. Comparing the average ages of both Raymond O. Baker, the senior representative who is 27 years old, and William McQuade, 21, Mr. Baker, who was a member of the general assembly in the session of 1919-20, was at that time the youngest member.

Oliver Beauchamp has accepted a position as foreman for the Blanchette & Blanchette Baking Company.

A communication was received by Chief of Police Daniel Killoran Tuesday afternoon from Chief Quilty of Springfield, Mass., to notify Eddie M. John of No. 41 Myer street, that he must appear before the district court of Springfield, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, to answer to the charge of reckless driving of a motor vehicle on the Boston road, Springfield, recently. Notice was served on Mr. John at his place of employment at the Boston Valley company.

An automobile driver and several on-lookers received the thrill that comes from a lifetime when an automobile stalled on the railroad crossing on Main street about one o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The stalling of the car was nothing strange, the fact that the Boston express had just left the railroad station and was bearing down upon the machine, was rather disconcerting. The driver of the car, who was pushing it off the tracks just as the train sped by.

The work of erecting a steel water supply tank at the Columbia engine house of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad was started Tuesday. The tank will have a capacity of 60,000 gallons.

Rev. W. O. Foster of Atlanta, Ga., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational church, Lebanon and will begin his duties December 1.

Miss Sarah Abbe and guest, Miss Miriam Prentice of Englewood, N. J., both students at Wheaton college, will arrive here Wednesday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stiles of South Windham for the holiday.

Alvin Nelson was in Hartford Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hill of the Bridges will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives in East Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Frank Bugbee will have as dinner guests Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbs, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Almira Wright of Hartford will spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wright.

Russell Norton of Boston university arrived here Tuesday to spend the holiday with his parents.

Mr. Thomas O. Cole will be a holiday guest of Dr. and Mrs. Chester Cole of Brooklyn, N. Y.

An adjustment to the amount of $67 has been made for damages to the home of Mr. Andrew W. Loomis at No. 25 Pearl street, caused Friday night, by sparks from the Latham & Crane fire. Three gallons of chemicals were used by Engine Company No. 1 Monday morning about 4:30 o'clock to extinguish a chimney fire at the home of E. L. Lambert No. 69 Meadow street.

Palmer Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Latham, is spending a week with his parents.

Miss Corinne E. Burgess returned Monday from a short vacation spent in Hartford and Bristol.

G. R. Gilman and family moved Monday to Quincy, Mass., where Mr. Gilman is business secretary at the T. M. C.

Miss Evelyn Beaulieu of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting Company is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. Fennell McCallum entertained the monthly study meeting of the mission department of Dunham Memorial church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Megitt Smith was the leader and the topic was Africa. The attendance was good. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sumner recently sold their store and stock to Martin M. Hansen and went to New Jersey for the winter.

Mrs. John Lewis has returned to her home from the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stamford Springs.

Edwin Reynolds Memorial school gave a Thanksgiving play and Robert Louis Stevenson's Land of Play in the chapel on Friday evening. Mrs. Alguire and Miss Moore assisted with music. The attendance was a full house and the entertainment was much enjoyed by young and old.

Miss Ruth Slater of Willimantic was the week end guest of her schoolmates, Helen and Mildred Bowers.

Leonard Smith of Spring Hill addressed

at the home of Mrs. C. C. Martin of Bristol recently when sparks from a passing locomotive set the roof afire.

Miss Emma Fitch, formerly of Colchester, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hubbard.

Mrs. J. G. Bill has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Bullock of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Susan Farnsworth has returned from an extended stay in Bristol.

Mrs. F